To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Barbara Weibel. She and I have been business associates for approximately fifteen years during which time she has served as my sole real estate representative (agent). Because of the length of time we have been doing business together, I feel my comments are based on substantiated experiences that I support without reservation.

Mrs. Weibel is very driven. She works as long as it takes to complete the task or challenge. Real Estate is very important to her, but more importantly relationships. Not just the relationship with her associates, but with the sellers and buyers of the property she represents. Honesty is extremely important while developing these relationship. It has been an extreme pleasure working with her for all these years knowing that honesty is always present.

Knowledge is another important attribute of Mrs. Weibel. Experience in dealing with real estate transactions is always critical. Also, the experience of knowing where to go and what resources to call upon are important. The knowledge in these areas is so important when completing and negotiating real estate transactions.

In closing please let me add one more important thought. Through the years Barbara and I have developed a strong friendship based on respect, integrity and honesty. We often can do business on just one another word. In today's world it may not be recommended, but it is refreshing to know you can conduct business with an individual knowing their word is gold. Because of this whomever selects Mrs. Weibel to represent them is getting a top notch agent and person.

Sincerely,

John P. Luciano
President
